

La Locanda

Carta dei Vini

To make sure that you enjoy a fully rounded Italian experience at La Locanda, great care is taken to offer the very finest wines from across the whole of Italy, perfectly suited to accompany all of our authentic regional cuisine. La Locanda only offers their customers the very best. Every glass, including the house wine, is carefully selected from reputable producers, as with the food from the kitchen, protection and conservation are the result of an interdependent relationship between three critical components: biodiversity, community and sustainability.

They are all integral parts of our model, since we believe that an integrated process can only work if it is safe for the environment, socially fair and economically sustainable.

Alla vostra salute!
